Dealing with the passing of your loved one is hard enough, yet never in your wildest dreams did you imagine that the aftermath would be so difficult. In our new book, Your Roadmap to Estate and Probate Litigation in Texas, we discuss the probate litigation process, the different types of probate litigation and provide answers to frequently asked questions.

Do you think you need the assistance of a Probate Litigation Attorney? If you answered yes to any of the questions below, we recommend calling our office at 214-559-7202.

Are you a beneficiary of a Will and the Executor is not making proper distributions?

Is the Trustee of your Trust not keeping you informed?

Are you suspicious that a loved one was forced to sign their Will?

Do you think that a loved one did not have capacity when they signed their Will?

Were you excluded from a loved ones Will?

At The Ashmore Law Firm, you will benefit from over 134 years of combined legal experience. Call today to schedule a complimentary consultation with one of our Probate Litigation Attorneys.

THE ASHMORE LAW FIRM, P.C.

Expertise. Experience. Excellence.
